Seeking to be an authentic Christ-like community

Week commencing 21st May 2017

WELCOME

What a privilege it is to welcome you as you join the Gold Hill family today, whether in person here in Chalfont St Peter, or via our website. We'd love to connect with you individually and get to know you better: over coffee on Sunday provides a good opportunity, or why not drop us a line/call/email if you're based elsewhere?!

This morning we continue in our Colossians and Ephesians series, at 8.15 considering our 'rescue from the dominion of darkness', and at 10.00 exploring why we should 'find out what pleases the Lord'. This evening we look at the account of the healing of the blind man in John's gospel, and examine the power Jesus has to open our eyes and help us to see clearly....both in a physical sense, but also in terms of our understanding.

The next few weeks present a wide range of opportunities to attend and invite others to Gold Hill: come and consider the various viewpoints of the candidates standing in our constituency in the General Election (Friday 26th); invite others to hear what God is doing around the world and hear Brother Yun's testimony (Saturday 3rd June); be part of our Pentecost services on Sunday 4th June, then join with others over lunch in one of a range of venues or in your own homes.

Father—thank you that you have rescued each believer, and helped us to understand the good news of hope in you. May we each seek to do what pleases you through this week!

IT COSTS TO CARE

A day with Ian & Ruth Coffey from Moorlands College helping us all to grow in our abilities to care for people. Pastoral care isn't just for 'the professionals'!
Whether you are in a family, relate to people in the workplace or have any kind of ministry role in church, we all have many times in life when we find ourselves with people who might benefit from our care.

A light lunch will be provided. The day is free to attend, but if you do wish to make a donation toward the costs there will be a way to do so on the day. Please let us know of your intention to come using the details below, or using this link: www.goldhill.org/itcoststocare
